

We are looking for a Registered Dietitian to join our Shelbyville Campus team. This is a Part Time, hourly position! Please review the details below and apply today!

Masonic Homes Kentucky Kentucky is a leader in senior living communities and provides a full range of lifestyles and services for independent living, assisted living, personal and skilled care. We are a Best Place to Work in Kentucky and a national Best Non-Profit to Work For! Join our team of excellent professionals!

Essential Functions and Responsibilities:

Assesses the nutritional status of neonates/ infants, pediatric, adolescent, adult and/or geriatric patient through documentation in the medical record. Uses parameters such as anthropometric measurements, visual assessment and interpretation of laboratory values.

Develops and revises a nutrition care plan based on information from the patient, medical record, family and health care team members.

Incorporates current evidence-based research into practice.

Adheres to facility confidentiality, HIPAA regulations, and patient rights policies.

Complies with regulatory agency standards, including federal, state and JCAHO as evidenced by successful completion of surveys with no deficiencies.

Completes all required documentation, reports and logs in a timely, professional and thorough manner.

Communicates effectively with all team members, patients and families through conferences, individual consultation and committee participation. This includes telephone, written, and electronic communication.

Orients, mentors and trains staff and interns, as applicable.

Advises department on patient care and food service issues.

Plans regular and modified menus based on current diet manual.

Follows facility and department infection control policies and procedures.

Participates in facility-wide and department Performance Improvement Program and on Performance Improvement teams to improve processes and patient care.

Visits patients on an assigned nursing unit or area and helps ensure that every patient is visited by a member of the management or professional team at least once during their hospital stay.

Assists and contributes to stated patient satisfaction goals by providing quality service.

Qualifications:

Education and Experience:

Bachelor's degree from four-year college or university

Minimum one (1) year work experience as a dietitian preferred

Language Skills:

Ability to read, analyze, and interpret general business periodicals, professional journals, technical procedures, or governmental regulations. Ability to write reports, business correspondence, and procedure manuals. Ability to effectively present information and respond to questions from groups of medical staff, healthcare professionals, managers, clients, customers, and the general public.

Mathematical Skills:

Ability to calculate figures and amounts such as proportions, percentages, area, circumference, and volume. Ability to apply concepts of basic algebra.

Computer Skills:

Possesses necessary skills to effectively operate hospital's admission, discharge and transfer (ADT) system, and other computer-based systems, which manage patient-care records. Ability to operate a standard computer, including basic use of MS applications such as Excel, Word and PowerPoint.

Other Qualifications: