

Meet your Presenters:

Steven "Bru" Brukwicki, Kentucky Division of Emergency Management, Planning Branch

Sherry Culp, Director, KY LTC Ombudsman Program and Lead Facilitator, Family Councils Emergency Preparedness Awareness Program

R. Josh Human, Senior Associate, Stantec Disaster Management and Resilience Practice

Diana Jester, MSSW, Program Manager, LTC2Prepare Initiative

Jasie Logsdon, MPH, MA, Healthcare Preparedness Coordinator, Kentucky Department for Public Health

Betty Shiels, PhD-C, MSSW, Director, LTC2Prepare Initiative

Representatives from the Kentucky Office of the Inspector General (OIG)

KY LTC Training for Emergency Preparedness

Attend the 2-day EP 101 conference and return to your facility with:

- ◆ Knowledge of Kentucky's Unique Hazards
- ◆ Tools to build your facility Emergency Preparedness Program
- ◆ Ideas to build and maintain a strong EP team
- ◆ Resources from county, regional and state sources
- ◆ Strategies for meeting exercise requirements at facility and county level

Questions? Contact Diana Jester at 502/852-3487 or diana.jester@LTC2Prep@louisville.edu

From the 2016 CMS Rule:

"Four (4) core elements central to an effective & comprehensive framework of Emergency Preparedness Requirements are:"

- ◆ Conducting a Facility Hazard Vulnerability Assessment
- ◆ Developing Policies and Procedures
- ◆ Planning for Internal and External Communication
- ◆ Training and Testing your EP Program & Plan Annually

Who Should Attend?

We welcome all Leadership teams: Administrator, Asst. Administrator, Director of Nursing, Maintenance and/or Plant/Facility Directors, Risk Managers and all members of the Safety/Emergency Preparedness Committee

Return form by email or fax at LTC2Prep@louisville.edu or 502/852-5887.

Registration:

Workshop:

Basic Emergency Preparedness 101:

Louisville: May 1-2, 2018

Attendee Name:

Job Title:

E-mail address:

Facility Name:

Facility Administrator:

Administrator E-mail address:

Complete one registration form for each staff member attending.

Participants are responsible for making their hotel reservations. A block of rooms has been reserved at the hotel. Use the code LTC2Prepare for discounted rate.

Due to funding restrictions, only beverage breaks are provided. Meals and hotel expenses are the responsibility of attendee.

___ I have a disability as identified by the Americans with Disabilities Act and anticipate needing assistance at the conference.

Conference Hotel:

Basic EP 101: May 1-2, 2018 –
Crowne Plaza Louisville Airport, 830 Phillips Ln, 40209; Phone: 502/367-2251; Room rate per night: $129.00 + tax = $149.74; check-in April 30, checkout May 2. Reservation line: 1-888-233-9527. Make reservations by March 31, 2018 to receive special room rate.

Comments from the February EP 101 Conference:

"The trainers identified tools and resources that will be useful to us as we develop further our preparedness efforts. I came away with thoughts on how to develop and broaden our relationships with regard to emergency preparedness which is a core component of the rule." (Administrator)

Facilities that attended the February EP 101 training are encouraged to send additional team members to the May EP 101 conference. There will be plenty of seating and hotel rooms available.

FREE Registration!!!!

LTC2Prepare Initiative is funded through CMS Grant #2017-04-KY-0808 and the Kentucky Office of the Inspector General, Grant # PON2 723 1800000928 1.

Join us for Derby Week!!!

CMS/OIG Workshop:
The CMS Final Rule for LTC
Emergency Preparedness

Emergency Preparedness
101

KY LTC Administrators and Leadership/Preparedness
Team Members

May 1-2, 2018 – Louisville

UNIVERSITY OF LOUISVILLE[®]

KENT SCHOOL OF
SOCIAL WORK